

KECHARA PARADISE

The Kechara Paradise outlets are five Dharma stores throughout Malaysia, with four in the Klang Valley and one in Penang. Though each outlet is different in concept, they all strive to bring the unique arts and culture of the Himalayas to the cosmopolitan, urban Malaysian.

Although inspired by the centuries-old traditions of Tibetan Buddhism, there is a strong emphasis on aesthetics – Kechara Paradise aims to bring a different aspect of Asia to the great melting pot of cultures already found here in Malaysia. Store managers personally source for the best quality items all over Asia, and select pieces that best suit our contemporary Malaysian lifestyle. From Tibetan cabinets to brass statues to carpets and Tibetan thangkas, every corner of a Kechara Paradise has hidden treasures. Whether your decor is Bali-inspired or modern Manhattan, these items will provide character suitable for any setting.

A Kechara Paradise item is versatile, and can be bought purely for its aesthetic appeal or, should customers be interested, for the symbolism, rich history and Tibetan traditions that it represents. For those who are spiritually curious, the well-informed and friendly staff in all the stores are happy to share their knowledge with you with no obligation to purchase.

There is an online store www.vajrasecrets.com available to the rest of the world, which specialises in Buddha statues, books and the supporting ritual items.
